Stephen, thank you for reaching out.

I am no longer working with Pierce but instead now working with my new lawyer, Eric George (cc'd here).

We have a call set for an hour from now to talk about this with my PR team. Their concern is that the press could potentially spin the fact that this is an installment (and not the entire lump sum, as you well know isn't possible due to the structure of the settlement agreement) against me in some way. Also, we are tracking down a confirmation/ statement from Children's as well, although I don't necessarily think we should wait on that.

Stephen, I'll have my team reach out after we've spoken, if that's alright?

Thanks again.
