My One and only,

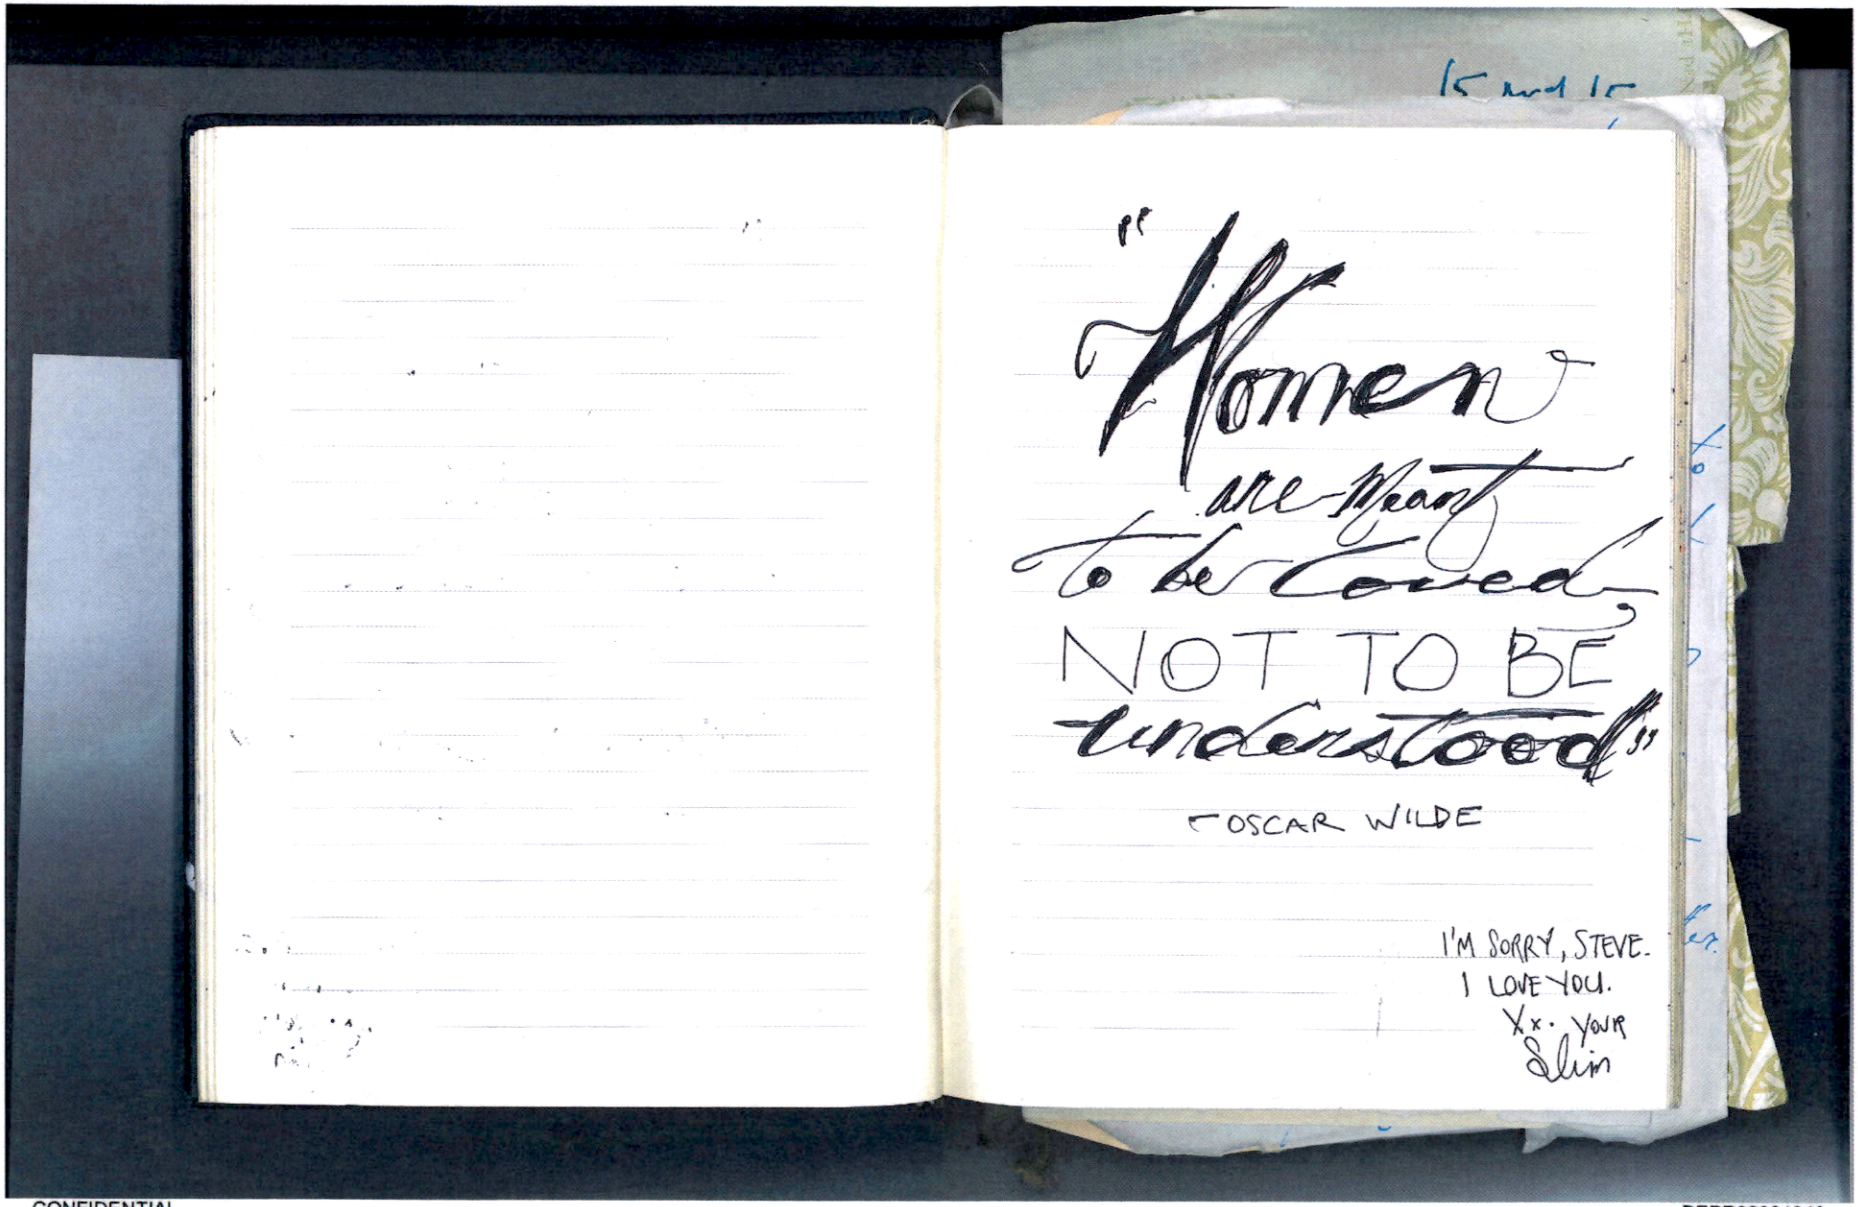

I fall more and more for you every day. Every conversation, every laugh, every story, every "debate" (sorry about those) - every date brings me closer to you. Closer to knowing you, closer to the warm glow of knowing you're seeing the real me... (whatever that may be). True love isn't about just the madness of passion or instead picking the safety of peace. No - it's about having both. Falling madly in love with your friend. That is what has surprised me perhaps the most... That I have seen in you the true bones of friendship and respect. But of course, I still (perhaps more than before), want to rip you apart, ~~and~~ devour you and savor the taste... just not.

My Steve,

Sitting here on the train looking out at Bangkok fades away into the melting sunset, waiting for you to emerge from the bathroom in yet another questionably-fitting suit, thinking to myself:

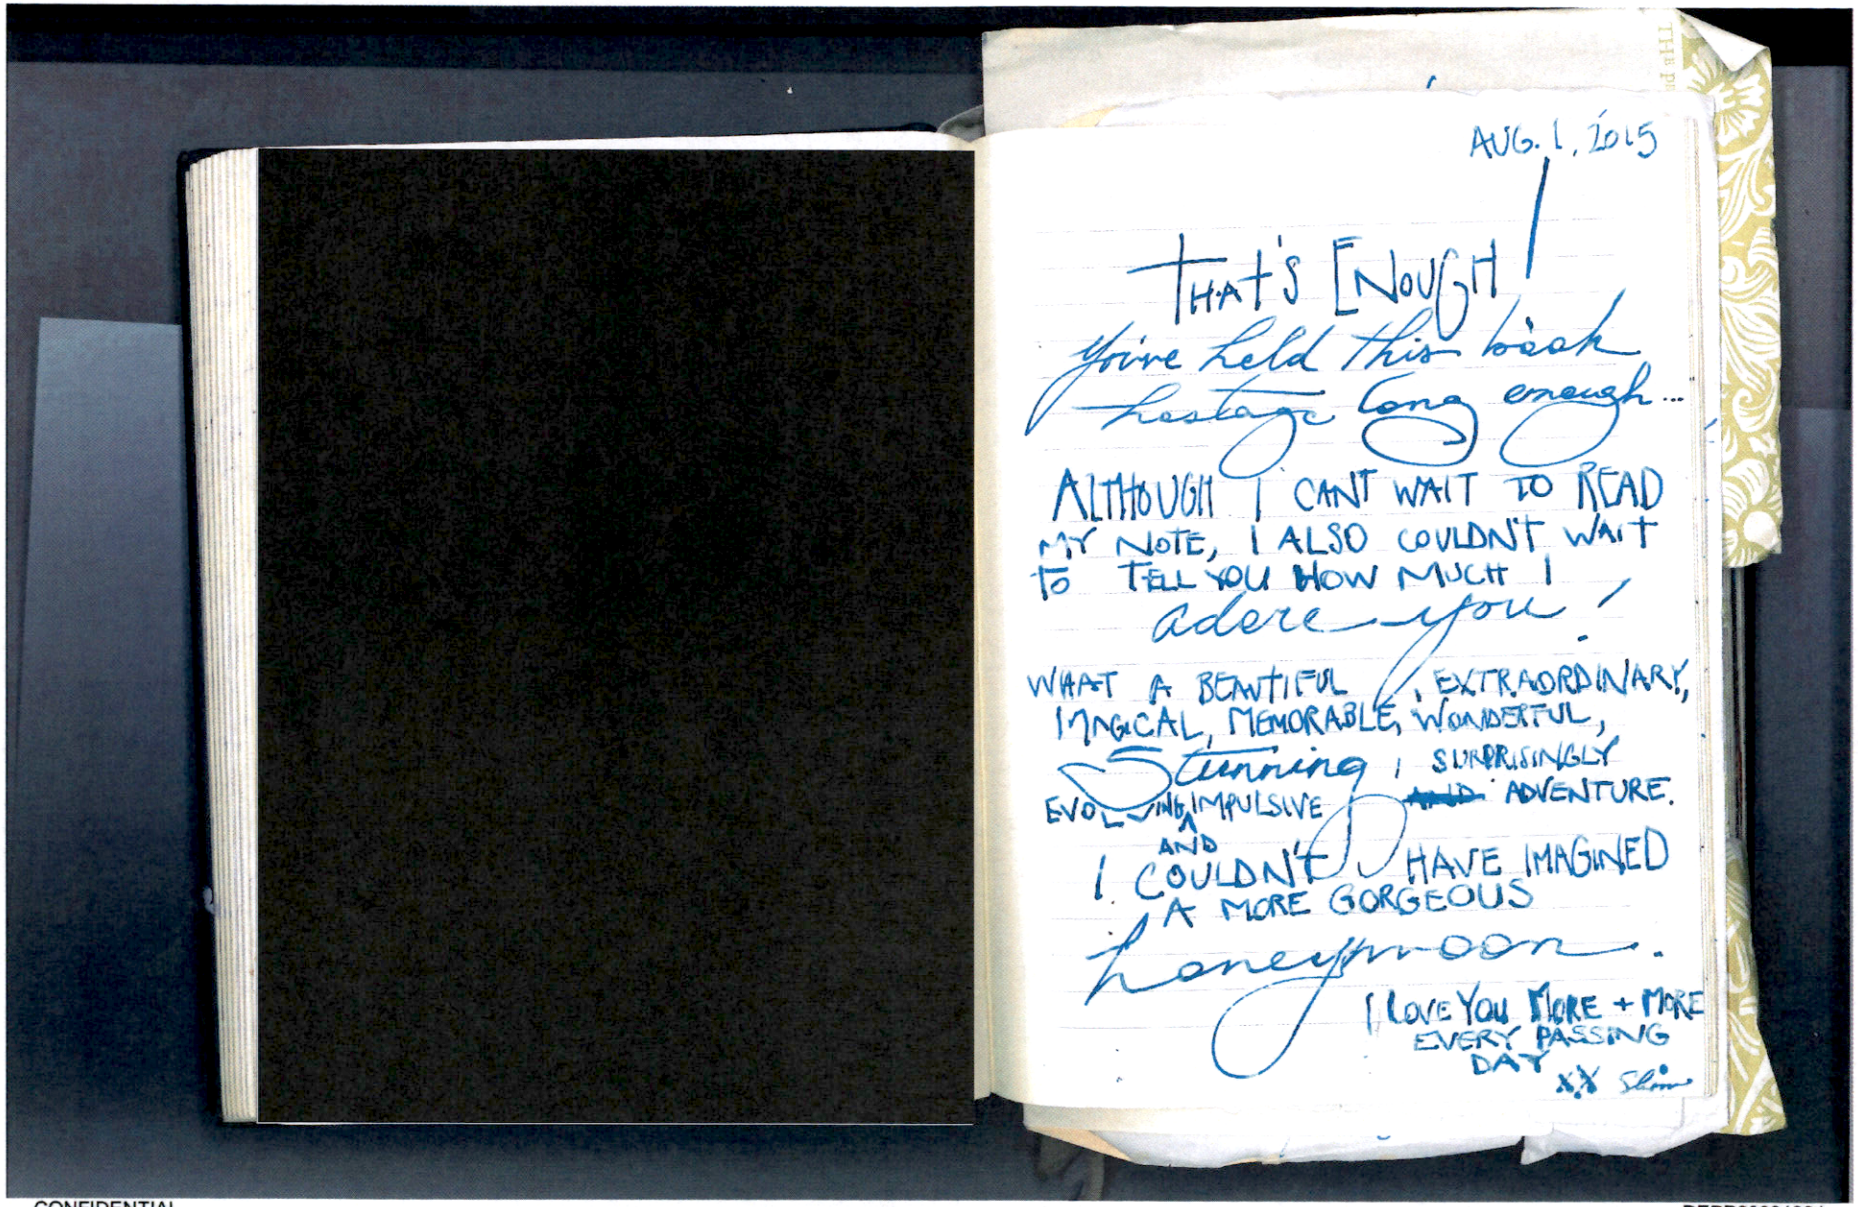

Could I be a luckier woman?!

Not just because you are the man of my dreams or that I could never dream of a more unbelievable adventure, no, what truly makes me feel lucky in these quiet moments of reflection is the simple truth — it's (like most of life's most rewarding treasures) the (DAY 2 OF BOOK-STEALING! I HAD TO.) 2 AUG.

My love –

There is nothing on Earth I love more than waking up to your sweet soft beeps in my ears or the intoxicating warmth of your touch upon slowly climbing out of my dreams. I long for that. For the most beautiful start of my day. And even though we argued last night

I still felt my day was we managed to fall asleep in each others arms ... but all I can say to that is I hope the things said in anger & pain were just that — and that you miss and love me too — and that is what matters most to you. You may say you stand by everything you said and did — and that there is nothing you can learn from this but I don't feel that way. And it's important for me that you know that. I love you. And I'm sorry. I miss my warm loving husband.

I refuse to let so many many of them. And have had too much fun, love and history to do so.

I am sorry I can get crazy. I am sorry I hurt you. Like you, I can get wicked when I am hurt... when I feel provoked. shattered. And last night I was. I felt abandoned about the silly fare thing. felt absolutely bewildered about you not coming home on my last night here, and was heart broken and angry after many attempts in vain on my part to rectify the situation and make ammends on ~~my~~ the last night of what was otherwise a gorgeous trip with you. I am so sorry for my part. None of this is meant to be an excuse for hurting you. Because the truth is, nothing is. There is never a reason good enough to hurt you. You are the last thing in the whole world who deserves it, last person I ever want to hurt. I love you Steve. I am so forever yours. Xx Slim
